 - (v) Transactions which cannot be subject to omnibus' approval by the Audit Committee
- b) The Audit Committee shall consider the following factors while specifying the criteria for making omnibus approval, namely: -
 - (i) Repetitiveness of the transactions (in past or in future); and
 - (ii) Justification for the need for omnibus approval
- c) The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself regarding the need for such omnibus approval for repetitive transactions and that such approval is in the interest of the Company.
- d) Such omnibus approval shall provide for the following details:
 - (i) the name(s) of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transactions that shall be entered into,
 - (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any; and
 - (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit. Where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding rupees one crore per transaction.
- e) Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding 1 (one) year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of 1 (one) year.
- f) Omnibus approval shall not be made for transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the Company.
- g) Omnibus approval shall be subject to such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.
- e) In compliance with the approval of the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee of the Company has specified following criteria for granting omnibus approval:
 - (i) The maximum value of the transactions, in aggregate, which can be allowed under omnibus approval route in a year will be 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements.
 - (ii) The maximum value per transaction which can be approved under omnibus route will be the same as the thresholds of a Material Related Party Transaction.
 - (iii) While assessing a proposal put up before the Audit Committee for approval, the Audit Committee may review the following documents/ seek the following information from the management in order to determine if the transaction is in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length or not:

1. Nature of the transaction i.e. details of goods or property to be acquired/ transferred or services to be rendered/ availed (including transfer of resources) – including description of functions to be performed, risks to be assumed and assets to be employed under the proposed transaction;
 2. Key terms of the proposed transaction, including value and quantum;
 3. Special terms covered/ to be covered in separate letters or undertakings or any other special or sub-arrangement forming part of composite transaction; and
 4. Benchmarking information that may have a bearing on the arm's length basis analysis, such as:
 - Market analysis, research report, industry trends, business strategies, financial forecasts, etc.;
 - Third party comparable, valuation reports, price publications including stock exchange and commodity market quotations;
 - Management assessment of pricing terms and business justification for the proposed transaction; and
 - Comparative analysis, if any, of other such transactions entered into by the Company
- f) Transactions of the following nature will not be subject to the omnibus approval of the Audit Committee:
- Transactions which are not at arm's length or not in the ordinary course of business
 - Transactions which are not repetitive in nature
 - Transactions exceeding materiality thresholds as laid down in this Policy
 - Transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the Company
 - Any other transaction the Audit Committee may deem not fit for omnibus approval.

C. Transactions requiring approval of the Board of Directors:

Approval of the Board shall be required for entering the Related Party Transactions which are not in the ordinary course of business or not an Arm's Length Transaction.

Where any director is interested in any contract or arrangement with a related party, such director shall not be present at the meeting during discussions on the subject matter of the resolution relating to such contract or arrangement.

D. Transactions requiring approval of the Shareholders of the Company:

All Material Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications shall be placed before the shareholders (provided that no member of the Company shall vote on such special resolution, if such member is a related party) for their prior approval and no Related Party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

However, the said requirement would not be applicable in respect of a resolution plan approved under section 31 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 subject to the event being disclosed to the recognized stock exchanges within one day of the resolution plan being approved.

Provided that, prior approval of the shareholders of the Company shall not be required for a Related Party Transaction entered into by a listed subsidiary of the Company, where the Company is not a party to the Related Party Transaction and Regulation 23 as well as sub-regulation (2) of Regulation 15 of LODR Regulations is applicable to such listed subsidiary.

E. Exemptions:

The requirement for obtaining shareholders' approval, approval of the Audit Committee or obtaining an omnibus approval for Related Party Transaction is not applicable for the transactions entered into between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary(ies) or of two wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

V. DISCLOSURE AND REPORTING

The particulars of contracts or arrangements with Related Parties referred to in section 188(1) of the Companies Act shall be disclosed in the report of the Board as per Section 134 of the Act. Further, the Company shall provide additional disclosures on related party transactions as required under Regulation 23 of the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

The Company shall submit disclosures of Related Party Transactions on a consolidated basis, in the format specified by the Securities and Exchange Board of India to the stock exchanges and publish the same on its website within the time limit prescribed under LODR Regulations.

The Company shall make Related Party Transactions disclosures in the format specified in Integrated Filing as per SEBI regulations.

VI. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT APPROVED UNDER THIS POLICY

In the event the Company becomes aware of a transaction involving any amount not exceeding one crore rupees is entered into by a director or officer of the company or the company with a Related Party that has not been approved in accordance with this Policy prior to its consummation, the members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the Audit Committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) The transaction is not material in terms of the provisions of sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 23 of LODR Regulation.
- (b) rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification.
- (c) The details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions in terms of the provisions of sub-regulation (9) of Regulation 23 of LODR Regulation;
- (d) any other condition as specified by the Audit Committee

Provided that failure to seek ratification of the Audit Committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the Audit Committee and if the transaction is with a Related Party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the director(s) concerned shall indemnify the Company against any loss incurred by it

In any case, where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a related party transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, discontinuation of the transaction or seeking the approval of the shareholders, payment of compensation by the defaulting person (as may be decided by the Audit Committee) to the related party or the Company as the case may be, etc. In connection with any review/approval of a related party transaction, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

VII. POLICY REVIEW

This Policy shall be subject to review at least once every three years and changes as may be deemed necessary by the Board of Directors and to comply with any regulatory requirements.
